TO HAVE STATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (Copyright) .-- Conferences between President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty have developed the policy that will be followed toward the activities of the Ku Klux Klan. Senator Massachusetts, Democrat asked for a Presidential proclamation denouncing the Klan, but it was stated to-day that the President's last expression on the subject would have to stand, namely, the letter signed by Secretary Christian and sent to Mrs. Frank L. Applegate at Medford, Ore., which reads as fol-

"You may be sure that any statement of the President's interest in, o approval of, the Ku Klux Klan is a complete and egregious misrepresentation of the President's attitude. In some quarters it has even been represented that the President is a member of this organization. Not only is that untrue, but the fact is that the army surgeon." President heartily disapproves of be organization and has repeatedly ex-pressed himself to this effect."

So far as Federal prosecutions are concerned, they will have to follow conclusive evidence that the State auhority has broken down and that Federal interests have become in-volved. In other words, irrespective of the question of Pederal power to act, there is a desire here to build up the power of the States to depend upon themselves. If, of course, this uthority should collapse, or if State sentiment should be averse to enforce ment of law, the Federal government will recognize the obligation thrust me by Gov. Grossbeck of Michigan, upon it.

The problem of strengthening State government in America has almost

The roll call rinished, Senstor Underwood presented a motion to adjourn until Friday, Senator Curtie of Kansas, Republican waip, broke in with a point of order, and in arguing his point declared the four-hour fill buster waged yesterday was without precedent since the "Force Bill" was ebated to death in the early nineties Senator Curtis said Senator Underwood was to be commended for franky announcing yesterday that the Democrats intended to do all in their power to prevent passage of the bill. Replying, Senator Underwood said he nad "heard that same song suns before," having been in the house when "Czar" Reed was speaker and made his ruling "when the stand-pat policies of the Republican party were proclaimed." The pride of the Republican organization then was that they used the strong arm in enforcing their will upon the country, added Senator Underwood, declaring that the reaction which followed resulted in Grover Cleveland's eectlion. When Senator Curtis suggested the Senate proceed with its business until aight and then adjourn over Thanks riving. Senator Underwood remarked "We might just as well adjourn now, for there will be no business transacted this day in the United States Scante?

Senator Underwood further warned the Republicans that the Democrat would force a quorum call and a rol on every affirmative matter rought before the Senate. Senate. Nelson, the aged Republican Senator from Minnesota, interrupted with an appeal to the Democrats to allow other business to be transacted even though continuing their filibuster against the Anti-Lynching Bill.

"Here I am a black Republican from Minnesota," said Senator Nelson, banging his desk with unusual vigor for a man eighty-odd years. "I wan to obtain the confirmation of a Democrat nominated to the Supreme Court (Pierce Butler)."

Senator Underwood replied the Democrats were determined on their course and Senator Nelson finally abandoned his appeal.
